16th Sunday in Ordinary Time: The Compassionate Shepherd Mk 6:30-34

The Gospel shows us the compassionate heart of Jesus as a Shepherd. Jesus sees the vast crowds of people waiting for Him on the other side of the lake. His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd. Seeing through their heart and recognizing the condition of His disciples and the people waiting for them, He pitied them. The disciples are tired and have little time to rest and even eat as people flock to wherever they go. While working for the vineyard of the Lord, we also need to take care of ourselves. That is the message Jesus wanted to convey to His disciples. They need time to rest, recharge, and reconnect with the Father in prayer (in a deserted place).

Jesus is the compassionate Shepherd of the sheep. The Jews know from experience how much God cares for the welfare of His sheep like a Good Shepherd. This knowledge that God cares is demonstrated best in the inspired text in Psalm 23. The Psalmist speaks with confidence that God will not deprive His sheep of what they need. I shall not be in want - the sheep will not lack anything they truly need - because the Lord provides. Pondering this line of the Psalms, we should recognize more deeply how much God, the Good Shepherd loves His sheep. Living under His protection, He guides us, He removes our fears, and gives us courage. That even in the darkest valley, the valley of the shadow of death, we can still live-in peace because the Lord is our Good Shepherd.

Jesus is a compassionate shepherd toward the people who followed Him, the poor and the sick - and moved with pity for them - knowing how they have to walk a long distance. The heat, the hunger, and the thirst they endured so they can listen to His teaching. The scene sets the stage for the miracle of the multiplication of bread that will happen soon. Today, many people exposed to the heat of the secular pressure are in search of Jesus. People who hunger and thirst for the Word of God, having no one to turn to, except to our Lord Jesus. How do we feel for those people who approach us for help, healing, reconciliation, and for hope? How do we nurture a compassionate heart like Jesus?

The Church is the flock of which God Himself foretold and that He would be the Shepherd, whose sheep, even though governed by human shepherds, are unfailingly nourish and led by Christ Himself, the Good Shepherd and Prince of Shepherds, who gave His life for His sheep. (CCC 754)

The compassion of Jesus reminds us that people will remember us not so much for our intelligence as much as for the moments we showed kindness and goodness to them. People will remember us more because we expressed our love for them. The most important thing, in the end, is we did our best, showed compassion, and cared. Jesus teaches us that no matter how busy we are in the ministry, we need to have a quiet time for ourselves to pray, and to be in communion with God.

Jesus teaches us to reach out to those in need of His presence and love. Let us not forget to make time for ourselves, for a moment with God, and for moments of compassion and love.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What We Carry from Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.

We need your Middle School, High School, and Young Adults Feedback!

Joshua Baldwin, our Youth & Young Adults Minister, wants your opinion on what you would like from our middle school, high school, and young adult programs. If you are a teen, a young adult, a parent, or a volunteer, please give us your feedback.

Your opinion is valuable to us, even if you do not regularly attend. If you could take a moment to tell us what you like and how we can improve our programs, that would be awesome!
