Gospel Meditation

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Since God created human beings, we have struggled to keep our focus on God. We wrestle with the question of “who is God” and foolishly believe some of God’s job description can be better completed by us. We wander in different directions, lose our way, think that happiness can be found elsewhere and even construct golden calves to worship. Are we simply too independent or just blatantly stubborn? It’s a good question to ask. Even with all of our silliness and distractions, God compassionately and patiently waits. He lets us assert our wills and knows that perhaps one day we will actually wake up and realize how lost we are.

“Since happiness is nothing other than the enjoyment of the highest good and since the highest good is above, no one can be made happy unless he rises above himself, not by an ascent of the body but of the heart. But we cannot rise above ourselves unless a higher power lifts us up ... Divine aid is available to those who seek it from their hearts, humbly and devoutly; and this means to sigh for it in this valley of tears, through fervent prayer (St. Bonaventure).” One of the biggest human struggles is discerning what, exactly, is the highest good. We are ordered to achieve it but if we pursue it with clouded vision, we will never truly find it.

One of the greatest obstacles to God’s power and love is a stubborn, closed heart of stone. When we are fiercely determined to set our sights elsewhere for happiness or simply ride the popular currents of the day, we will never satisfy the deep ache and longing within. We know that ache well. It is precisely why we scurry all over the place, attempting to find the next best thing to take away its pain. Nothing in the created world ever can or will. We continue our journey. One day, people may wake up and realize that they are grazing in the wrong pasture and putting themselves in harm’s way. When this awakening occurs, it will be a most joyous day as we will see God’s wide-open arms waiting to receive us. “Lead me, Lord, in your path, and I will enter in your truth. Let my heart rejoice that it may fear your name (St. Bonaventure).”

REGISTRATION IS OPEN

Please come join us for a year of growing closer to Christ. Gather with like minded teens. Come gain some valuable knowledge, ask some questions, and have some fun.

Please find registration packets in the Vestibule of the Spirituality Center. You can drop off packets at the Parish office. You can also pay online. Contact chrisbosn@stroseanthem.com with any questions you might have.

To our adults who are seeking information about becoming Catholic and to those baptized in the Catholic faith and want to complete the Sacraments of Initiation - Confirmation and First Eucharist. RCIA inquiry sessions and classes will begin in the next month. If you wish to join our gatherings or would like further information, please contact in the parish office or via text @ 704-661-3087.

VOLUNTEER NOW FOR FAITH FORMATION

Friends in Christ - there are some exciting changes coming to the Religious Education program - TBA. With these changes, there is a need for Faith Formation teachers and aids. You will be guided through the process and trained on specific topics and ways to work with the children.

If you are interested in being a formation teacher or aid, contact via text 704-661-3087 or through e-mail: rhunsaker@stroseanthem.com.

Confirmation & First Eucharist Sacrament Preparation Classes

Parents - help your children earn some of the 10 hours of community service by volunteering at the Fall Festival. We would love to have you and your children help in the Kid's Zone

Tuesday Morning Bible Study returns the Tuesday after Labor Day

Join the St. Rose Tuesday Morning Bible Study Group for their Fall study kickoff September 6 from 8:30-10 am in the St. Rose Church office. The group will be studying "Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom" from Ascension Press and will meet every Tuesday morning for 20 weeks.

Acts is the story of how a few Christians, empowered by the Holy Spirit, were chosen to bring Christ and the Good News to the ends of the earth. They faced secular forces, internal strife, and hostile crowds, and despite all of this, they brought the kingdom of God to a broken world and the love of God to the hearts of men. "Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom" traces how the gospel witness spread outward in waves from Jerusalem, and reveals how the seeds of Church structure and authority took root. Presenter Jeff Cavins shows the joys and struggles of the early Christians in living the life of Christ and how to see your place in the Church as a disciple of Christ.

To order materials, please Google search "ascension press bible study acts" and select the "Study Set" or visit:
